

Social Netiquette

Netiquette represents the importance of proper manners and behavior online. In general, netiquette is the set of professional and social etiquettes practiced and advocated in electronic communication over any computer network. Common guidelines include being courteous and precise, and avoiding cyber-bullying. Netiquette also dictates that users should obey copyright laws and avoid overusing emoticons. T -Is it True?
H -Is it Helpful?
I -Is it Inspiring?
N -Is it Necessary?
K -Is it Kind?

Ask Yourself...

- ◀ Would your mom want to see that? Who will read this?
- ◀ Do you really think that's private? Is this too much information?
- ◀ Would you say that to someone's face? Is it disrespectful?
- ◀ Is that your work to publish?
- ◀ What if someone posted a photo like that of you?
- ◀ Could someone misinterpret what I am saying?
- ◀ Are you posting out of anger? Are you showing your bad side?

Profile Pictures: Do's and Don'ts

Personal branding is crucial to your career development in the internet age. The importance of having a good professional looking profile picture can't be understated. Your profile picture is your first impression.

DO: Use a recent photo and keep it updated.

DO: Make yourself personable.

DON'T: Upload a photo with someone else cropped out.

DO: Keep it simple from a composition standpoint.

DON'T: Have a photo that looks like it belongs on an online dating profile.

DO: Feel free to include some kind of reference to your career interests.

DON'T: Include significant others, kids, or pets. [Sourced from LinkedIn.com](http://Sourced from LinkedIn.com)

Mind Your Manners

- ◆ Be respectful at all times.
- ◆ Ask before you post and tag a photo of someone else.
- ◆ Be mindful of copyright and always acknowledge the image or content author.
- ◆ Avoid writing in capital letters, people think you are shouting.
- ◆ Always try to re-read messages to look for autocorrect mistakes.
- ◆ Avoid swearing online, remember that you can't always control your audience.
- ◆ When disagreeing with people, always respect yourself and others. State your opinion in a non-aggressive manner and avoid personal attacks.
- ◆ Avoid online arguments—nobody ever really wins.
